

"Cosmos" 17" X 21", Fluid Acrylic on watercolour paper, 2011

My art is an exploration of artistic forms and personal creativity. I am inspired by God's hands and I communicate my faith and share my hope and love for the world through my spontaneous expressions on canvas.

I began my creative journey by learning Chinese ink brush in Hong Kong. Upon immigrating to Canada 1995, I began intertwining Asian themes with my new western influences. In 2008 I proudly held my first solo art exhibition in a local cafe. I have since joined the Willowdale Group of Artists with whom I participate in many community exhibitions.
